7.5.1972	Southampton Sue Lopez Pat Judd (2)	3	2	Lee's Ladies Mary White Susie Ferries	Eton Park, Burton – home of Burton Albion. 600 spectators Southampton ... "started with two goal blitz within the first minute of the match, which left Lee's Ladies reeling. Scorers were Sue Lopez and Pat Judd. But the Scots came storming back into the game just before half-time with a great goal from Ann Lightbody. In the second half Sue Ferries pulled another back for Lee's Ladies to bring the scores level but it was "girl of the match" Sue Lopez who put the clincher on the match with her second and Southampton's third goal The Mitre Cup was presented to Southampton by Mr J Coyle of Mitre Sports after the match." Burton Daily Mail – 9 May 1972

Use of their grounds for a women's match, so the WFA secured Eton Park, home of Southern League Burton Albion. Men's Football League clubs had again refused.

Burton Daily Mail - Thursday 4 May 1972

The 1972 final was a repeat of the first, apart from the fact that Stewartson Thistle had changed their name to Lee's Ladies following sponsorship by the local confectionary company, Lees Ltd. A brief match report was published in the Kilmarnock Standard: Stewartson Ladies were beaten in the women's Football Association Mitre Cup Final recently at Burton-on-Trent for the second successive year running by Southampton Ladies. In a hectic match which was credited to both teams just failed to secure the equaliser in the closing minutes and final result was Southampton 3 Lees 2.

In the opening stages it was all Southampton and after 20 minutes they had scored two well-taken goals. Stewartson Lees pulled back almost immediately when Reilly crossed for Mary White to first-time the ball into the net.

Stewartson fought back strongly all through the second half but again Southampton scored first. Down 3-1 with only 20 minutes to play, Lees turned on the pressure and Susan Ferriers crashed home a great shot after beating two defenders.

This was the spur the Scottish team need and from then until the final whistle they hammered the Southampton goal but without success. Lees deserved at least to draw for their fine team effort. They went down fighting. Lees Ladies: Chalmers; Brogan and Lindsay; Kidd, Hunter and Walker; Reilly, Lightbody, Ferries, White and MacDonald. Subs: McCunnis and Howie.

The manager of Lees was Elsie Cook, a player with Stewartson the previous season, but not on the pitch this time as she was heavily pregnant.

Around 600 spectators witnessed a double-header with the third place play-off taking place immediately before the final. Emgals from Leicester beat Thame from Oxford on penalties after drawing 1-1 after 90 minutes. Emgals had themselves lost the previous year's third place match on penalties to Wanderers of Nuneaton.
