| 1956-57 | 1.9.1956 | | Wilmorton (A) | L | 1-2 | | In the first round, the South Section teams were drawn against North Section. This was decided on a home and away basis, with aggregate goals in the two legs deciding the tie. In subsequent rounds was decided on the ordinary principle with matches played on the ground of the club first drawn. Nomads broke new ground with a visit to Wilmorton, who were a Division 2 side last season. |
| | 5.9.1956 | | Wilmorton (H) | W | 6-1 7-3 agg | Payne (2), Fothergill, Remington, Willett (2) | The standard of football was high given the continuous rain which made the pitch heavy and ball greasy. |

Rolleston Cup

Founded in 1896, two cups were given by Sir John Rolleston MP, one for Rugby Code and one for Association Football. The competition was unique as it was controlled by officials of both codes. For many years both finals were played on the same day, and ground, alternatively in the Leicester Fosse/City ground and Tigers'.
