The Midget Minstrels Football Team has been established two years, and have, so far, won the majority of matches played by them, and their goal average is probably equal to that of any junior team in the country. Should be pleased to arrange matches with any dramatic company on tour. Address, J. H. POSKETT, Hon. Sec. Midget Minstrels were a travelling troupe – their principal selling point was that thy were children and teens (not, incidentally, "dwarves", as the proprietor often had to stress): The boys appear in the burnt cork and black hair of the ordinary "nigger" minstrel, whilst the girls are tastefully attired in ordinary short frocks.

21.11.1891	Melton Swifts	4	1	Belgrave St Michael's	The ground was wretchedly muddy. The late start meant that the last 10 mins of the second half were played in darkness – the spectators not being able to see the ball. Belgrave's only goal was scored in the final minute. In the darkness it was impossible for the referee to see it, so he disallowed the goal. A wrangle followed, with the Swifts' goalkeeper declaring that it had gone fairly past him, so the goal was allowed to stand.
