14.10.1895	"Whites"	2	1	?	Athletic Grounds, Loughborough. Exhibition game played between members of the British Ladies FC. LADIES FOOTBALL ON THE ATHLETIC GROUND – On Monday afternoon a match was played on the Nottingham-road Athletic Ground, Loughborough between two teams of "the Lady Footballers! Here was not much actual football about the exhibition which was chiefly watched out of curiosity. Those who had the management of the affair did not extend to the Press the courtesies which the Loughborough Football Club and all other invariably offer for those reporting matches. The game ended in a victory for the "Whites" by two goals to one, Leicester Journal 18 October 1895

8.5.1896					LADIES FOOTBALL MATCH A football match, in which ladies were the only contestants took place on the Belgrave-road ground this Saturday afternoon, in the presence of a fairly large number of spectators. Sir Thomas Wright was to have kivcked off, but a business engagement prevented him doing so. The football was not of a very high order, even for lady players. Leicester Daily Post – 11 May 1896
