"The Secretary of the Bosworth Football Club has been asked for an explanation, 'Why so many men were crippled?' seven, out of ten who went, coming back lame. That the Bosworthians allege the type founders began it and then it was a case of 'when Greek meets Greek.' That of course the visitors deny the "soft impeachment' and say their opponents were wholly to blame. That news of the affair reached Welford and got so magnified that it was rumoured an inquest was to be held on one of the damaged players. That this was a little more than the truth: but in future it is proposed to take a surgeon with the team."
